

VA
HEALTH CARE

Defining EXCELLENCE
in the 21st Century

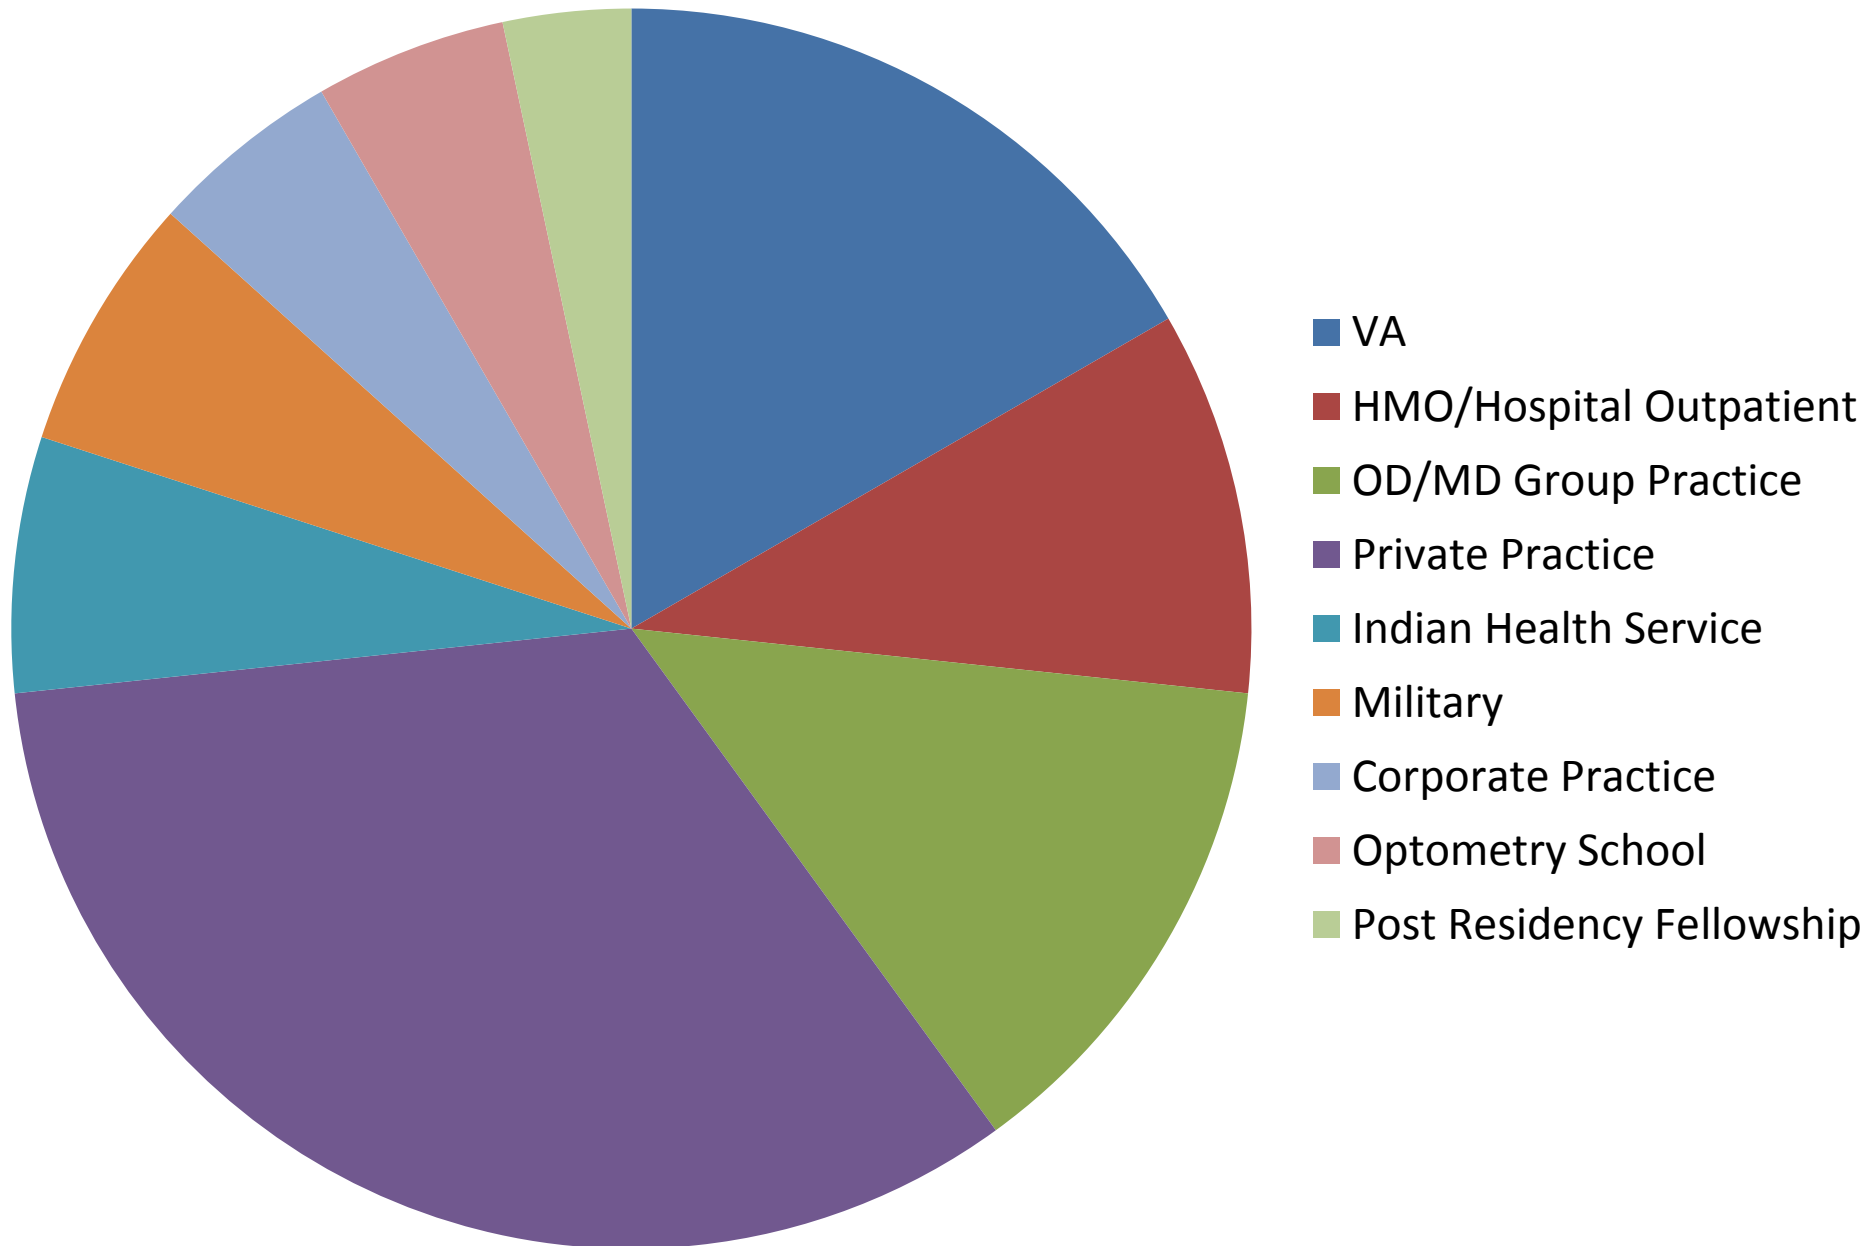

Southern California
College of Optometry

Program Overview

- High volume of ocular disease
- Opportunity to train in a world class blind rehabilitation center
- Exposure to a highly dynamic multidisciplinary environment
- Accomplished faculty
- Development of scholarly potential (posters, manuscripts, lectures)
- Top notch facility

Resident Placement

Resident ACHIEVEMENTS

| | # of residents |
|--|-----------------------|
| • Fellows of AAO | 23 |
| • Lectured at AAO | 8 |
| • Publications in peer-reviewed journals | 11 |
| • Post residency VA Fellowships | 2 |
| – 1 year VA clinical fellowship | (1) |
| – 2 year VA research fellowship | (1) |

Virtual Tour of Tucson VA

Entry to Tucson VA

Main
Hospital
Inpatient floors

Ambulatory Care Addition (building 80): The Eye Clinic is on the Second Floor.

Ambulatory Care Addition Lobby

Typical Eye Clinic Exam Room

Dilation Waiting Area

Ancillary Equipment: topographer, auto-refractor, NCT, FDT

IVFA and OCT Cirrus #1

Fundus Camera and OCT Cirrus #2

Technician Rooms each with HVF

Technician Room with A and B-scan

Medical Sub-Specialty Conference Room

(used for Friday afternoon eye conference)

JaVA Connection: Full service coffee shop (just below Eye Clinic)

Newly Renovated Medical Library

Southwest Blind Rehab Center (SWBRC)

BRC Exam Room #1

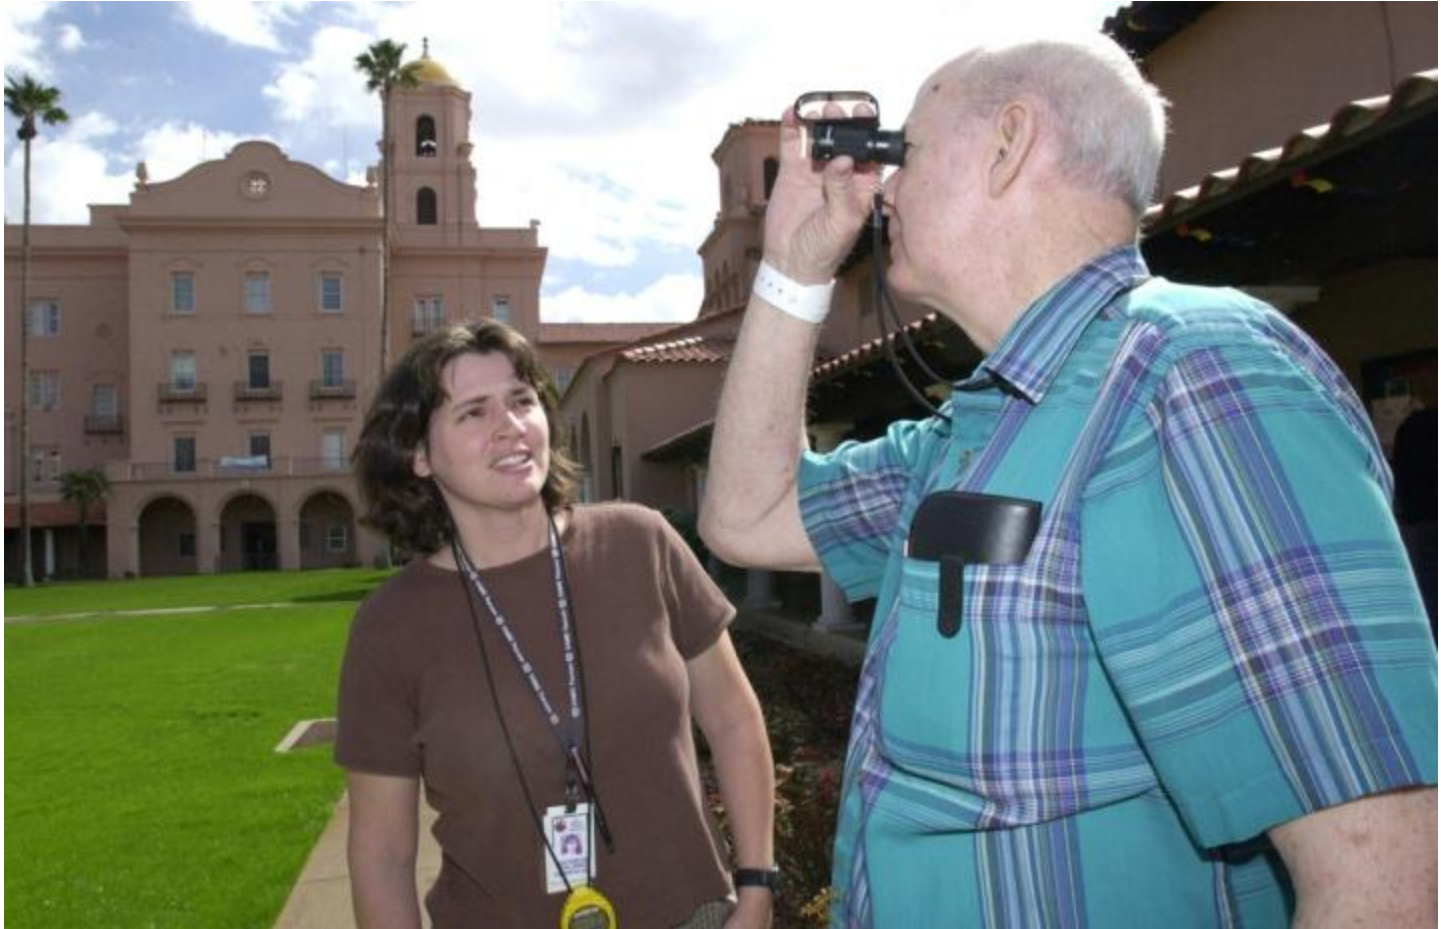

Haag Streit Slitlamp in BRC w/ teaching tube & video

BRC Exam Room #2

The SWBRC is a unique multidisciplinary environment where the optometry resident is part of the rehabilitative team

For Further information

<http://www.scco.edu/index.php/academics/residency-programs-available/>

and

<http://www.natmatch.com/ormatch/>